Something more

Araxi Restaurant & Oyster Bar

D

As an early pioneer of farm to table dining, Executive Chef, James Walt's seasonally focused menus celebrates the excellence of locally sourced ingredients. Walt's innovative and skilfully executed dishes, from savoury starters through to delicious desserts, deliver the most unforgettable flavours.

Side Cut

D

This renowned Whistler steakhouse serves up a wide variety of regional meats including premium local seafood to top-tier level beef, accompanied with fresh vegetables and classic side dishes. Sidecut also has an extensive wine list from the vineyards of British Columbia, as well as old world selections, champagnes and craft cocktails by award-winning mixologist Lauren Mote.

Après Ski

Bearfoot Bistro

D

Dining at this restaurant is more than a meal: It's a culinary journey. The exceptional seafood and wild game found in British Columbia is complimented by the best of the best available from around the globe. Let their wine director pair the perfect wines to compliment each dish, or warm up in the Ketel One Vodka Ice Room and experience an exhilarating flight of sub-zero vodka. Then finish off the experience with one of their stunning original dessert creations or opt for the theatrics of their signature nitro ice cream, prepared tableside with a Bearfoot Bistro flourish.

Dusty's Bar & BBQ

L D

Step into Whistler's original watering hole and go back in time to a place dripping with legend, lore and finger lickin' BBQ sauce. Dusty's offers mouthwatering food, arguably the world's best caesar, legendary après, party rockin' live shows.

Black's Pub & Restaurant

L D

This is a destination unto itself. Serving lunch, drinks, and dinners, this pub is a staple in Whistler village. From the top deck, you can watch as the skiers and snowboarders come into an orchestrated corral or in the summer watch the bikers pump down A-Line and skid into Skier's Plaza. A great spot for families.

Brewhouse

L D

With a separate restaurant, bar and mezzanine, The Brewhouse is capable of accommodating groups large and small. The pub has a cosy two-sided fireplace and plenty of TVs so it's a perfect place to relax, warm up and watch a game after a day on the slopes.
