

Snowmass - Dining Guide

The Artisan

This Restaurant & Bar on the lobby level of the Stonebridge Inn in Snowmass Village is beloved by the local community for its seasonal cuisine and comfortable atmosphere.

Limelight Lounge

For dining in Snowmass, the Lounge is the beating heart of the Limelight Hotel. Guests wake up to an incredible breakfast spread complete with rich coffee, European pastries, fresh fruit and scrambled eggs. And when the day is done, everyone seems to recap their adventures over a glass of rosé, a cold beer or a wood-fired pizza. Live music? Special theme dinners that the locals can't refuse? They've got it all.

Mix 6

With its unique concept, family friendly environment, reasonable prices and loads of nearby activities in one of the most beautiful places on earth, Mix 6 is a must visit. Fresh, healthy and fast, you choose your own meal from a variety of vegetables, bases and proteins.

The Stewpot

An easy menu with classic favorites like Chili and a Hot Pastrami Sandwich. The menu also boasts some contemporary flavor like a Middle Eastern Salad or an Avocado Veggie Sandwich.

Little Mammoth

A variety of chicken, pork and fish dishes, but of course, ultimately, steakhouse is all about the beef. The steaks are done right, with bold flavors, high quality and the signature, served on Himalayan salt blocks.

Vue Lounge

Experience contemporary American cuisine in a relaxed and cozy alpine atmosphere. Stark's Alpine Grill delivers a fusion of traditional steakhouse classics, an eclectic blend of flavors & and local ingredients.

Stark's Alpine

Experience contemporary American cuisine in a relaxed and cozy alpine atmosphere. Fresh, seasonally focused, and inventive—Stark's Alpine Grill delivers a fusion of traditional steakhouse classics, an eclectic blend of flavors, and locally sourced, high-quality ingredients.

Basecamp

Located slopeside at the base of the ski resort, the restaurant spans two floors, with three fully stocked bars, an expansive downstairs patio complete with a 24ft fire pit, and a second story terrace that boasts the best views of Snowmass Mountain.

Aurum

Known for masterfully crafted menus and brand of enlightened hospitality.

Kenichi

World Class sushi, need we say more?

Il Poggio

Serving Snowmass Village for over 20 years... authentic, delicious food.

Casa D'Angelo

The latest addition to the Casa D' Angelo family located in the heart of Aspen, classic yet innovative Italian cuisine.

Venga Venga

Located right off the slopes in Snowmass Village, cozy up by the fire pits on the outdoor patio with panoramic mountain views while enjoying handcrafted margaritas & table-side guacamole.

Las Montanas

Mexican food highlighting Tex-Mex classics (think queso and chips, tabletop sizzling fajitas, enchilada combo platters, and house made tortillas) as well as ceviche's and aguachiles.

Toro

Experience the flavors of Latin contemporary dining at TORO Kitchen & Lounge, one of the best in Aspen Snowmass restaurants. Delight in Pan-Latin-inspired dishes from acclaimed chef and restaurateur Richard Sandoval.

The Nest

Whether you're dining slope-side on Assay Hill, or poolside at Viceroy Snowmass, NEST's light, healthy lunch fare won't disappoint. Try the NEST burger, lobster roll, lemongrass coconut ribs, cobb salad, shakes, and more.

The Edge

An exciting and diverse menu featuring Alpine Cuisine.

