

PEACE OF MIND BOOKING POLICY - NEW ZEALAND

Snowscene have flexible booking terms due to extenuating circumstances until border closures, restrictions and travel quarantine periods are lifted.

For the New Zealand 2021 ski season Snowscene are offering:

Full refund up to 90 days prior to departure* if borders do not open, are restricted or quarantine periods are required not suiting our travellers.

*Excluding foreign exchange charges.

If you opt to lock in your foreign exchange policy at time of booking this foreign exchange trade is subject to a fee which is formed by the bank charge at time of selling back the unused foreign exchange contract shall you decide to cancel.

Once borders open Snowscene consultants will be in touch within one month of borders opening to proceed with standard booking conditions, payment terms and locking in foreign exchange if not yet committed.

You will be provided a booking commitment form at this time to continue your travel arrangements with Snowscene.
